William,

I am writing this today. Could you send me the two contacts of people who will be signing the grant agreements and their emails?

Thanks,

William,

Thanks for following up. I will say my director, Jenny Koltnow, left the company and I am the only person in charge of donations, writing grant agreements, check writing, volunteer coordinating, event planning, internal engagement, and more.

I am trying my hardest to get all of these agreements out, but I am simply falling short on the timeline due to manpower. I will work on this as soon as I have the capacity. I know this is so important to your organization, and I have not forgotten you.

Many Apologies,

Ben/Bill,

My name is Jill Coleraine, Community Relations Manager at AutoZone, and I will be your new point of contact in Jenny's departure. Your grant is approved for a total of $300,000 to be paid over the course of 3 years starting this year. I will be sending over a grant agreement in the next few weeks for the amount of $100,000. Once signed, a check will follow.

Much Appreciation,

Jill Coleraine

I apologize for bugging you as I am sure Jenny's departure left some things in the lurch. I just wanted you to know how important your support is for our continued involvement with U of M's Public Safety Institute and Bill Gibbons. When we left your offices last spring and in all continued communications with Jenny, the 100k grant seemed assured. We were certainly counting on it and hope it is still forthcoming. If not, I hope you can do whatever you can to support our work. Thanks much for your consideration.

Ray,

Regarding AutoZone's financial support of the Crime Commission, any help you can be to push things along will be appreciated.

I've attached the following:

- Jenny's letter of April 17, 2017 as a follow up to our meeting with both of you
- The application we submitted per Jenny's request for the initial $100,000
- The latest correspondence I received from Jenny before she left for her new job dated September 29, 2017

Please let me know if you need anything from us.
